

Advanced Training Skills to Make your Course Come Alive!

For: Anyone who trains—managers, loan officers, title reps, attorneys, home inspectors

No other course/workshop like this! All new! This course goes way beyond any Train the Trainer workshop you may have experienced! Why? It doesn't just teach you training techniques. We apply those techniques to your specific courses.

The situation: You have been given a course to teach—with no teaching instructions. In fact, you may have no outline—just a Powerpoint presentation. So, how in the world do you teach this? How do you avoid putting your audience to sleep by droning on for 3-7 hours?

If you've struggled to add 'life' to your dull course full of facts and figures, you'll love this opportunity! And, company managers, you'll love having Carla do a customized version of this course so you're sure all your associates are teaching your material correctly and expertly! You'll create greatly improved confidence AND gain more dedicated instructors! (Plus, dozens of teaching ideas to apply right away).

Advanced Skills to Make that Course Come Alive

This course can be done as a 3 hour presentation, or as

- 7.5 clock hours (clock hours available in Washington state) (live) –usually done in 2 sessions (or no clock hours, if you prefer)
- The first day, we'll investigate the best teaching methods and where they belong in your course; we'll start applying these teaching methods to your course
- The second day, we'll practice teach those methods in your courses; lots of practice and experience for you

Why this course:

- To apply all you learned to the courses you teach
- To help companies standardize their courses so several people can teach it accurately
- Customized for each company to increase their course effectiveness
- Polish your course so you know it's teachable and effective
- Bring your course module and we'll make it entertaining, lively, and effective
- What we do: Put creative teaching methods in your module and practice them
- Results: Much more confidence for each presenter and your company courses have continuity you can count on!

Contact Carla (425-392-6914 or carla@carlacross.com) to find out about her customization just for you! Companies are realizing that they want their instructors to be really good, and their courses to be consistent and effective. Don't get left behind.

